Native American Flutist and two-time GRAMMY award winner, Mary Youngblood teams up once again with friend and colleague, Jim Brock, one of the country's most renowned percussionists.

If you missed them last August, we hope you will be able to make this special event.

Brock is back in town from Charlotte, NC to continue working with Mary on her new album.

And during Brock's visit they will present this special Valentine's Day Concert.

Come, bring your own percussion instruments and join two of World Music's finest artists for an evening of joyful, loving harmonies and rhythms.

No tickets will be sold for this event.

We only suggest a "Love Offering" of $20 for each attendee.

Admission will be awarded to the first 250.

PROCEEDS

10% of "The Gate" will be donated to the Ascension Lutheran Church.

Mary and Brock will be available after the concert to chat, visit and sell their CDs.
